Squid Lid – Is a Toronto music duo consisting of acclaimed musicians Jonah K and James Zirco Fisher that could best be described as bits and pieces of circus, industrial, drum and bass, cinema and dubstep, combined into one live and wriggling spectacle.

They've been producing and performing a unique hybrid of music and after a recent series of spectacularly well-received performances, including an exclusive showcase at the 2010 Rue Morgue Black 100 Party, which they were then featured on the Space network's special on the evening. Squid Lid has released their debut full length album Steam Powered Submarine and will be releasing their much anticipated upcoming album Crypto-Zoologists in the summer of 2011.

"Squid Lid encapsulates the very essence of musical and aesthetic strangeness with hypnotic calculated beats and bizarre samples." – AllMusic Guide

Coming from the diverse backgrounds of theatrical soundtrack and dance floor electronic music, Fisher and Jonah joined forces to concoct a remarkable new hybrid sound of cinematic circus break beats which draw elements from drum 'n bass, dubstep, and industrial music. All this accompanied by a mesmerizing stage show of glowing monsters and creatures that change their faces before your very eyes!

James Fisher is a schooled pianist that has composed soundtracks for the likes of Discovery Channel and Canadian Stage Company, and has performed internationally with Circus Orange, Daredevil Opera Company and Mump & Smoot. Jonah K is an electronic music producer and DJ. He has released tracks on numerous labels including Vague Terrain and Pawnshop. For the last decade he has performed at and co-organized electronic arts festivals and special events around the world.
